SENATOR WILLIS DIES AT DELAWARE HOMECOMING

DOZEN CITIES ISOLATED BY SLEET STORM

Northern Ohio Is Disentangling Itself From Effects of Worst Storm in Many Years;
Trains Crash at Lima

BULLETIN
New York, March 31.—Sixty-one persons were injured, 42 passengers and 19 railroad employees, in the wreck of the Broadway and Liberty limited near Lima, O., last night, officials of the Pennsylvania railroad announced shortly after noon today.

Earlier reports had placed the number of injured considerably lower. Those were Pennsylvania railroad trains.

Cleveland, March 31.—Northern Ohio today was slowly disentangling itself from the effects of one of the worst sleet storms experienced in years during which more than a dozen cities in the state were practically cut off from the world.

Hundreds of workmen were attempting to re-establish power and communication lines, disrupted when the weight of sleet-laden wires pulled down pole after pole, snapping telephone, telegraph and power-feed wires alike.

Transportation lines tied up for hours were trying to regain normal schedules.

Two Cities Hard Hit
Ft. Smith, March 31.—The path of Kenneth Phillips, 24, at Perryburg was attributed to a car after he had been pinned under his auto when it skidded from the road near Perryburg. He was taken out by a passing motorist but a doctor could not be summoned on account of broken telephone lines.

According to available reports this morning, Findlay and Fostoria were hardest hit by the storm with Norwalk and Sandusky districts running a close second. Four houses were badly damaged at Norwalk, while damage estimated at $800,000 had been done to wire equipment in Northern Ohio.

Approximately 1500 poles were down between Sandusky and Norwalk and 200 down between Crestline and Wellington.

Nation Asked To Pray For Chicago

Chicago, March 31.—The nation will be asked to pray for Chicago in an appeal sent out over the radio tomorrow from the Tabernacle of Paul Rader, famed Chicago evangelist.

He declared an effort would be made to have the call broadcast by amateur short wave lengths so that all nations of the world might hear the appeal and pray for Chicago's "regeneration."

MAYOR'S COURT COLLECTS $943

March Report Submitted;
14 Building Permits
Were Issued

Fines, costs and licenses totaling $943.35 were collected in March by Mayor Phil Hiddleston, his monthly report shows.

Of the total, $678.40 goes to the city, including $544 in fines, $102 in costs, and $32 in licenses and building permits.

Fourteen building permits issued during the month were for a total of $122,670 in new construction and remodeling. As is sometimes the case, the actual building costs are estimates given for the permit. These permits are as follows:

Ohio Mutual Insurance Co., fire wall, $1,000; R. A. Oehl, remodeling, $200; G. W. Allen, new block, $20,000; Paul and Verna Myers, addition, $700; Teofil Andrei, repairing, $1,000; Emil Bahm, remodeling, $250.

National Sanitary Co., building, $50,000; Catherine Hilliard, remodeling, $800; W. W. Luce, house and garage, $2,800; W. P. Sangner, roof, $350; Frank P. Bard, remodeling, $275; A. E. Heim, porch, $150; Besse and Anna Cook, remodeling, $150; G. C. Murphy Co., alterations and building, $15,000.

Mayor Phil Hiddleston today issued a building permit for $15,000 to the Murphy Co., but it is anticipated that the cost will run considerably over this preliminary estimate.

Receives Threat, Seeks Protection

Chicago, March 31.—Alfred E. Barker, wealthy manufacturer and friend of United States Senator Charles S. Deneen, today appealed for police protection.

MULLINS LOSES TOURNEY GAME

Lineup Disrupted, Salem
Loses to Massillon
At E. Liverpool

Mullins all amateur team entered in the tri-state tournament at East Liverpool was defeated this morning in the first game, 12 to 10, by the Massillon Cardinals.

The outcome was an upset, as Mullins had confidently expected to trim the Massillon quintet which the body makers beat earlier in the season here.

Using a line-up far different than expected, the Salem team could not get going. Siegenthaler and Sacconi, two Ohio Wesleyan stars who were to have played on the team, were in a train wreck and did not arrive for the game.

Captain Wilcoxon got six of his team's points, while Hawkins and Older each made two. Whitacre played center and Roessler was at the other guard, both going scoreless.

Last Night's Games
East Liverpool, March 31.—First round games in the annual tri-state amateur basketball tournament were played off here last night. Included in the opening games were the following:

Rossman Corporation, Beaver Falls, Pa., 31; Youngstown Eagles, 24.
Gissing Chevrolet, Wooster, 42; Canfield Scholastic, 12.

McCaullin Florists, Steubenville, 28; Fairmont Moose, 27.
S. W. Goffs, Beaver Falls, 33; Bers Hanks, E. Liverpool, 31.
Sherer Grills, Canton, 24; Bethesda Leatherjackets, 19.

R. G. Brian Clothiers, East Liverpool, 28; Brown News, Toronto, 17.
McCaullin Florists, Steubenville, 31; Kreiger Sport Shop, Niles, 15.

Attorney Is Found Guilty of Contempt

Chicago, March 31.—William Scott Stewart, noted criminal attorney, was found guilty here today of direct contempt of court in connection with his alleged intimidation of witnesses in the trial of Dr. Amante Rongetti, sentenced to die in the electric chair April 13, for the murders of Miss Loretta Enders and her newly born child.

Stewart was sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

FIGHT NOT LOST SUPPORTERS OF WILLIS ASSERT

Secondary Choices Still to Be Considered in Ohio Contest

DEATH SHOCK TO CAPITAL LEADERS

Temporary Confusion in Ohio Fight; Hoover
May Gain Some

Washington, March 31.—The sudden and dramatic death of Senator Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, was a severe shock today to political Washington.

He was one of the central figures in the movement to "stop Hoover," and his death, while in the thick of the fight, threw considerable confusion into the ranks of those who are intent upon keeping the secretary of commerce from getting the Republican presidential nomination at Kansas City next June.

Willis and Hoover alone were contesting for Ohio's 11 convention delegates and the fighting was just getting warm.

Fight Not Lost

The first reaction of the politician was that Willis' sudden removal from the scene left the Ohio field clear for Hoover. Examination of the Ohio primary law, however, revealed the inaccuracy of this conclusion, and although the senator's death has complicated the work of "stopping Hoover," the opposition was still unwilling today to concede that they have lost their fight on the Buckeye battleground.

There are 51 Willis candidates in the field in Ohio, and under the law all have secondary choices. Thirty-one of these are said to be favorable to Dawes, with the rest split among Lowden, Curtis and a few scattered. If the anti-Hoover sentiment can be kept crystallized and disciplined, the opponents of the cabinet candidate may yet prevent him from getting a majority of the 51 delegates.

Not that Willis is gone, the question was being asked among the politicians today whether these delegates will stand firm. The evident fear of the anti-Hoover camp is a rush for the Hoover bandwagon. If that can be detected—and prevented—the Hoover opposition may be shaken, but it still is determined.

Three Weeks Away

The Ohio preference primary is but a scant three weeks away. It is set for April 24th, leaving but a short time in which to corral the anti-Hoover forces in the state.

Even with Willis alive and per-

WRIGHTS SELL LISBON PLANT

American Chain Co., Buys
Plant Established By
H. H. Wright

Lisbon, March 31.—The American Chain Co., of Bridgeport, Conn., has acquired control of the plant and business of the Wright Manufacturing Co., of Lisbon, which was established in 1883 by H. H. Wright, and capacity increased during the war period.

The consideration has been withheld by the selling interests.

H. H. Wright will retire from active business, while W. F. Wright, a son, will continue in charge of the Lisbon plant. H. F. Wright, another son, will go with the American Chain Co., at Bridgeport.

The Wright company has been the largest competitor of the American Chain Co., and although negotiations have been pending since Jan. 1, announcement of the closing of the deal was not made until late Friday afternoon. Whether or not the Lisbon plant, which employs about 125 people, will be continued in operation has not been announced by the purchasing interest.

The Wright Co. has been doing a rather extensive domestic and export business in chain hoists and jobbing foundry work, and during the war period an extensive expansion program was put over. The concern is the second largest industry in the Lisbon territory.

Warmer First Part Of Week, Then Cold Says Weather Man

Chicago, March 31.—Weather outlook for the period of April 2 to April 7.

For the region of Great Lakes: temperature mostly above normal first part of week, followed by colder toward close, probably one or two precipitation periods.

Ohio Valley and Tennessee: fair Monday, showers by Tuesday night or Wednesday, ending about Thursday or Sunday. Temperature considerably above normal Monday and Tuesday, colder Wednesday, below normal Thursday, and rising temperature Friday and probably Saturday.

Death Hand Pulls Senate Strings

Washington, March 31.—The hand of death appears to be pulling the political strings of the United States senate this session.

When congress convened last December, there were 47 Democrats, 46 Republicans and one Farmer-Labor, giving the Democrats a bare control. There were two vacancies, due to the barring of Smith of Illinois, and Vane of Pennsylvania.

Then came the death of Senator Jones (D) of New Mexico, and a Republican, Bronson Cutting, was appointed in his place. The line-up shifted to 46 Democrats and 47 Republicans.

A few days ago Senator Ferris (D) of Michigan died. A Republican governor is expected to appoint a Republican successor, which would make the line-up 45 Democrats and 48 Republicans.

The death of Senator Willis (R) of Ohio and the probability that a Democrat will be appointed his successor will restore the line-up to 46 Democrats and 47 Republicans.

LARGE ADDITION TO MURPHY BLDG. UNDER CONTRACT

Store Will Be Remodeled and Enlarged; Work
Starts Monday

Extensive alterations, and the building of a large addition were authorized today by the G. C. Murphy Co., 5 and 10 cent store proprietors, for the Salem store at the corner of Main and North Lundy.

Work will begin Monday by the Boldt Construction Co., of Salem and Cleveland, the successful bidder for the contract. Terms of the contract call for the work to be completed in July, and the new store will be opened about Aug. 1. The amount of the contract was not divulged.

The company plans to give Salem one of the finest and most complete 5 and 10 cent stores in this part of the country, and it will be one of the best of the long string operated by the company, Manager B. Maxson announced.

The entire front of the store will be remodeled. The east wall will be torn out and the store extended the width of the lot which will eliminate the present wide stairway to the second floor.

A frame building on the lot connected to the main building on the rear will be removed, and a long one-story brick addition will be erected. This addition will go the length of the long lot, back to Sugartree alley, and an extensive basement will be constructed under this addition.

Provision will be made for a stairway to the second and third floors on the Lundy st. side somewhat toward the front part of the building. In the new store will be placed the most modern display cases and counters in the business. Public rest rooms will be added. The price range will be increased to $1.

The Boldt company will use practically all local labor, and every sub-contractor will be a Salem firm.

Lighted Cross To Make Impressive Special Service

The Juniors of the First Methodist church will assist in a special Holy Week service Sunday evening. They will fill the choir loft and furnish the music. The scripture will be read by a junior.

The hour will be closed by the "Lighted Cross." The darkness without the cross will be shown by the darkened room. Mrs. Calvin Leasure will sing "The Whole World Was Lost In Darkness." During the chorus, "The Light of the World Is Jesus," each Junior will place lighted candles at the foot of the cross. The Juniors will then sing, "Follow the Glean," the league hymn.

The pastor will speak on the topic "In This Sign."

Military Training Attracts Youths

Washington, March 31.—Military training apparently grows more popular among American youths every year.

The War department has received 20,050 applications for admission to next summer's citizens military training camps, against 9,707 at the corresponding period in 1927. A total of 35,000 will be admitted to camps in the nine army corps areas this year, as against 19,900 in 1921, the first year of the camps.

Report 50 Killed By Violent Quake

Constantinople, March 31.—Fifty persons were reported to have been killed in a violent earthquake in the Smyrna district today.

One hundred were injured, the report said.

MINERS STRIKE YEAR OLD; END ISN'T IN SIGHT

All Duration Records In Industry Shattered
By This Strike

20,000 MORE MEN
TO QUIT TONIGHT

Leaders Do Not Look For Break Before Fall
At The Earliest

Washington, March 31.—The first year of the soft coal strike ended today.

It has smashed all duration records in the industry for a strike of such magnitude.

Instead of lending itself to adjustment, the tie-up, which resulted from a fight over wages, has been marked by increasing bitterness. Industrial losses run into millions of dollars. Thousands of men, women and children face actual starvation. But through it all, prices of coal at the mines have fallen steadily as groups of operators compete for the business of a demoralized market.

End Not In Sight

No end is in sight. In fact, 20,000 additional union miners scattered all over the country are scheduled to quit work with the expiration of temporary wage agreements at midnight tonight. The number is not greater because John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine workers, has instructed his lieutenants to sign up all the mines possible on temporary scales.

Leaders do not look for a break in the strike before fall at the earliest. Industry has gone through winter without seriously curtailing the surplus of coal above ground, now estimated at about 45,000,000 tons. A diminution of this stock, coupled with fall buying for next winter's fuel, may afford the union an opportunity to negotiate wage agreements with operators who are content to let their mines be idle during the summer.

In Western and Central Pennsylvania, Ohio and Northern West Virginia, the biggest operators are fighting a desperate struggle with the union. Many of them already are running open shop, or will attempt to later. The additional 20,000 men affected are in the fields outlying from this section.

No Move to Compromise

Lewis said Wyoming, Montana, Washington and Michigan will continue union operations. He also claimed the bulk of the operators in Iowa, Indiana, Kansas and the southwest. Many Illinois producers from this section.

BODY TO LIE IN STATE CAPITOL

Donahay and His Military
Staff to Attend Funeral of Senator

Columbus, March 31.—The body of Frank B. Willis, U. S. senator and former governor of Ohio, who died at Delaware last night, will lie in state at the state capitol here, if the late statesman's widow and relatives accept an invitation extended today by Gov. A. Vic Donahay.

Governor Donahay and his military staff will attend the funeral, it was announced at his office.

"Ohio loses an illustrious son who faithfully served her," the governor continued. "He was honest, capable, vigorous and was loved by the people of his native state."

By order of Governor Donahay, Adjutant General Frank Henderson today hoisted a new flag to half-mast over the statehouse, honoring the memory of Senator Willis. The portrait of Senator Willis, made during his term as governor, was taken from his position on one of the walls in the statehouse rotunda and was placed upon a draped easel in front of the regimental flag of his late father, Jay Bartlett Willis, in the rotunda. Senator Willis' father served as a member of the 83rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry during the Civil war.

President Sends Message To Widow
Of Ohio Senator

Washington, March 31.—President Coolidge today sent the following message of condolence to Mrs. Frank B. Willis, widow of the Ohio senator.

"News of the sudden passing of your husband has been a great shock to me. He rendered distinguished service in his state assembly, later as governor of Ohio and also in the National House and Senate.

"He was an earnest and effective advocate of causes which he considered just, and a man of upright character. His going will be a distinct loss to our public life.

"Mrs. Coolidge joins me in deep sympathy for you and your daughter and his other relatives and friends."

LOCHER MAY GET APPOINTMENT TO SUCCEED WILLIS

Donahay Friends Believe
He Will Select Director of Commerce

Columbus, March 31.—Belief that Governor Vic Donahay will appoint Cyrus Locher, Democrat, Cleveland, to succeed the late U. S. Senator Frank B. Willis, as one of Ohio's representatives in the upper house of congress was voiced here today by intimate friends of the governor.

Locher, as state director of commerce, is a member of the governor's cabinet.

To date, Locher is the only candidate who has formally announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator, subject to the statewide primaries next August.

Locher was a candidate for the senatorship two years ago, but withdrew, prior to the primaries, in favor of former U. S. Senator Allee Pomerene who waged an unsuccessful contest against Senator Willis' aspirations for re-election.

State officials expressed the opinion the governor's appointment of a successor to Senator Willis will not be made earlier than the middle or latter part of next week.

They pointed out that the governor must await formal notification by the U. S. senate that the seat of Senator Willis is vacant.

Whoever is appointed by Donahay, it was stated, will serve until a successor to Senator Willis is elected at the Ohio polls next November and is duly sworn in at Washington.

The candidate who is elected next November, it was stated, will fill out the term of Senator Willis which expires on March 4, 1933.

Friends of former Governor Jas. M. Cox, Dayton publisher; former Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, Cleveland; Judge Florence Allen, Ohio supreme court; George White, Marietta, former Democratic national committeeman; former Senator Pomerene, and Claude Meeker, Columbus broker, are expected to urge Donahay to appoint one of them as U. S. senator.

Debaters Convince Judges Males Have Claims on Beauty

A debate on "Resolved, That females are more beautiful than males" afforded much merriment at a meeting of the Millville Community club Friday evening at the school house.

Ruth Moore and W. L. Holwick, who defended the affirmative side, won the judges' decision. L. H. Fawcett and Roy Zimmerman discussed the negative side.

Among those who had part on the program were: Catherine Minth and Miss Nellie Beck, of Salem, who contributed piano solos, and Miss Weikart, of Washingtonville, who offered a vocal solo. She was accompanied by Miss Beck.

Presidential Candidate Is Stricken Down by Hemorrhage as He Prepares to Speak
At Home Town Rally

DIES WHILE FAREWELL SONG IS SUNG

Collapses and Dies Instantly in Arms of His Secretary; Ill Thursday Night, Refused to Disappoint Home Folk

Delaware, Ohio, March 31.—Funeral services for Senator Frank B. Willis will be held here Tuesday, it was announced today.

The services are expected to be held either at Gray Chapel, Ohio Wesleyan University, where Senator Willis died last night, or at the Asbury M. E. church.

Complete arrangements will be made upon the arrival of Lloyd Willis, brother of the senator, who is expected to arrive here from Chicago this afternoon.

Mrs. Willis, who spent the night at the home of her parents, at Galena, was also to return here later today.

The body is to be removed to Senator Willis' home on North Franklin street late this afternoon. It will be escorted by eight militiamen of Company K, Ohio National Guard, who kept guard over the bier last night.

Delaware, March 31.—The entire state of Ohio was in mourning today for its favorite son, Senator Frank B. Willis, who died suddenly here at 9:09 o'clock last night in the midst of a home-coming welcome prepared by thousands of his fellow citizens.

Stricken by a cerebral hemorrhage, Senator Willis collapsed and died a few moments before his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination was to have been launched in his native city.

National Guardsmen of Delaware called by their commandant, stood guard over the body in a little funeral parlor here this morning while the senator's grieving relatives made arrangements for the funeral.

Residents Still Dazed

Stunned residents of this city were still dazed today by the suddenness with which the end came. Gray's chapel, where the senator was to have delivered a speech, was crowded with his admiring fellow citizens.

A band, marching at the head of a red light parade in which the senator rode, had played ragtime airs. A quartet from Columbus rendered vocal selections.

As the quartet began singing "Farewell," Senator Willis arose from the seat of honor. Calling C. A. Jones, his secretary, the senator said:

"Jones, I've never felt this way before in my life. Something's awfully wrong."

Dies In Jones' Arms

Calling for his wife, the senator then staggered and fell dead in his secretary's arms just as the last strains of "Farewell" wafted through from the reception hall.

A physician, called from the audience, pronounced death due to cerebral hemorrhage.

Mrs. Willis, prostrated by the tragedy, said she believed her husband had been made ill by the fumes of the torches in the parade to the chapel. She said that during the singing he had complained that he did not feel well.

The senator's fellow townsmen marched slowly out of the hall with bowed heads when his death was announced from the platform.

Ill Thursday Night

Sensor Willis was ill Thursday night, Mrs. Willis said. He had been attended by three doctors yesterday

after a restless night, but had said he felt no ill effects of his ailment.

He had been determined not to disappoint the comrades of his young manhood, who had gathered to hear him speak. They were his closest friends.

Sensor Willis was born at Lewis

Center, Ohio, December 28, 1871, and had served his state and community in public affairs since he attained manhood.

He took his bachelor's degree at

Ohio Northern university at Ada,

Ohio, and later earned his master's degree at his alma mater. Some years later he was graduated in law from Ohio Wesleyan university,

here.

Political Career

After his law degree had been attained, he became a teacher at Ohio

Northern of economics and law. In 1906 when he was admitted to the bar, he began a general practice.

But six years previous to his admittance he was elected to the state house of representatives, where he served two terms.

In 1910 he was elected to the United States congress, where he served two terms, retiring in 1915, when he was elected governor of the state. After 1917, when his term

FAREWELL

The hand of death occasionally swoops down to prove the importance of man. It chooses big men and dramatic moments; such men in the prime of brilliant accomplishment, such moments when the thread of a nation's history is in the weaving.

Thus has Senator Frank B. Willis been taken away, suddenly and without warning, in the midst of a remarkably successful career and on the threshold of climaxing success as a presidential nominee.

Never in the nation's history has fate conspired to create just this sort of regrettable elimination. Presidents have died during office, but not before has a presidential candidate been stricken down in the glow of campaign strength, head up to bear his party's laurel of leadership.

As President Harding died, a victim of cerebral hemorrhage, so died his close personal friend and political companion, Senator Willis, crushed by a like stroke. Their careers were much the same in life; the manner of their deaths identical. Last night was Senator Willis' homecoming to Delaware. The eyes of boyhood neighbors were upon him. The eyes of a proud Ohio were alight for this occasion. Delaware opened her arms to welcome a young man back and there in her arms he died, glad to be home, happy to be among his kind.

The United States senate has lost two outstanding members within nine days. Senator Woodbridge N. Ferris, of Michigan, preceded his Ohio colleague in answering the call of a gracious maker. These two faithful public servants were of opposite political inclinations but they had the same sense of duty to good government.

Ohio mourns her great loss, the shock of which may not be dispelled quickly. She knew Frank Willis for whole-soul qualities, which grew from her soil. And Frank Willis knew the sweetness of a state's pride in the strains of a song which reached his ears in the moment of death. The Buckeye Glee Club sent him away with

What Others Say

A RUNAWAY TONGUE

Senator Thomas J. Walsh, silver haired nemesis of Fall, Sinclair, Doherty and such other folk as are smeared with tainted oil from Teapot Dome or Elk Hills, takes Senator Gerald P. Nye mildly to task for talking too much.

The young North Dakotan who sits as chairman of the Teapot Dome committee, Senator Walsh hints, would do well to put a leash on his tongue.

Th Montanan doubtless has reference to Senator Nye's tip to the newspapers last Saturday, a neat shocking revelation that might shortly connect a hitherto unnamed government official with a mysterious package that might have contained oil slush money, and to Senator Nye's announcement on Tuesday that the estate records of the late President Harding would be searched.

Senator Walsh is dead right in thus rebuking his young colleague for letting his tongue run wild. If the committee had really uncovered a trail out of Chicago leading to important new evidence in Washington, as Senator Nye seemed to think last Saturday, then telling the world about it would have been about as foolish as a police notice to a gambling house that the raiders were on the way. Had the vague Chicago clue been a real one, then Senator Nye's puerile broadcasting would have given to the new "higher up" plenty of time to go out into the backyard, figuratively speaking, and bury whatever incriminating evidence existed.

When Senator Nye sounded off Tuesday about the proposed delving into the affairs of the Harding estate, he did something even more foolish. If there is the slightest reason to suspect that Sinclair or Doherty money ever reached Warren G. Harding, then it should be led for by all means. But a real investigator would go quietly and try to look for it, whereas Nye elects to take a brass along.

Offense becomes more blameless still, in the light of Nye's admission that he himself does not think anything will be found. If it can be shown to have been involved in the oil mess, it is to let the world know is evidence has been uncovered.

ered. Mud is not easily removed from a gravestone.

Is Gerald Nye concerned, first of all, with getting at the facts in the oil scandal? Or is he concerned, first of all, with getting his name on the first pages of the newspapers? A Minneapolis district judge recently deemed it prudent to caution a grand jury against bringing indictments, merely for the sake of publicity. Possibly the United States senate could do worse than tell Senator Nye to forget about personal publicity for the time being—Minneapolis Journal.

150 BILLION MILES

How would you like to be assigned the task of driving a motor vehicle around the world 61,000,000 times? Driving constantly at an average speed of 30 miles per hour it would take you 571,000 years. But that is exactly what you would be forced to do could you undertake to duplicate the travel of motorists of the United States during 1927.

These interesting figures were compiled by the American Road Builders' association following the association's report of gasoline consumption during 1927. Motorists consumed 11,563,490,000 gallons of gasoline, which at an average of 13 miles to the gallon would mean a total traveled distance of more than 150,000,000,000 miles.

The average consumption per motor vehicle during 1927 was 550 gallons and the average distance traveled estimated at 7,150 miles on the ultra conservative basis of 13 miles to the gallon.

The American Road Builders' association accredits much of the increased motor travel to the existence of good roads. "These roads," it is claimed, "save from three to four cents for every mile traveled. If all the roads of the United States were improved to a degree proportionate to the amount of traffic they carry, the annual saving in transportation costs would exceed $4,000,000,000."

The United States now has 660,000 miles of improved highways, according to the American Road Builders' association. There is a great demand for additional improved highways in the secondary system.—Rockford Register-Gazette.

VERILY, WHAT NEXT?

Only a few years ago John L. Baird was so poor that he couldn't buy working tools. Now he is due for a place with the immortals and there are few things which he wants and cannot have.

Everyone has noticed that the red colors of a sunset last longest. The infra-red rays, just at the borderland of human sight, John Baird went to work upon the red ray, just above the upper end of the spectrum. First he produced television, with which the reader is fairly familiar. Next nocto-vision, by which an object can be seen in a completely dark room, upon a screen in an adjoining room. Latest, the invisible ray searchlight. It sweeps across the sky, piercing the densest fogs, unseen, but an apparatus called an "electric eye" catches, upon a screen, all that comes in the ray's path.

What work for the human imagination has not John Baird provided! Verily, Aladdin's lamp was a mere candle.—Columbus Citizen.

AROUND BIG FACTSBy Royal S. Copeland, M. D.
United States Senator from New York. Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

In an address the other day, President Hilsen of Princeton, said: "The youth of today is not enthusiastic about anything—it is bored." That may be, but we need not worry over it. Youth is pretty sophisticated these days. There may be advantages in it.

It is natural for us of another generation to feel hurt or disturbed, certainly, over what is done now so differently than it was "when we were young." Somehow we feel it is all wrong, that the young folks should now be just as we were.

How can they be the same when the world is so different? We had no electric light to turn night into day. We had no automobiles to annihilate distance. We had no movies to give us familiarity with the wide world.

The telephone, the radio, the airplane, the illustrated daily newspaper—all these have conveyed knowledge to the young folks of today that we had to wait for until we passed middle life. They have access to books and information that were locked away from us.

In short, youth of today is sophisticated. No wonder youth is bored. With Alexander, youth has no more worlds to conquer.

What should we do about our young folks? What can we do? Do we need to do anything?

I have thought a lot about this since the beginning of the World War. As health commissioner of New York City during the period that revolutionized human thought, I was brought face to face with terrible facts about health and disease. We learned things we had never dreamed of until we examined tens of millions of young men in the draft boards. We came to know that thousands and tens of thousands of our youth are unfit physically. Then, in my own case, when I came to apply this knowledge to the millions under my care, it brought home an appreciation of the responsibilities which rest upon parents, physicians, ministers, teachers, all who come into intimate contact with youth.

If youth is bored, perhaps youth can be aroused by being given exact knowledge of the facts of life. It has felt the effects, but perhaps even its sophistication has not reached into the causes.

There are many things youth should know—important things, exact things. Most important of all are the facts of sex. I am not thinking of the effects of sex, but of the fundamental, underlying facts of sex.

As I view it, there is too much "thou shalt not" in our dealings with youth and not enough honest explanation of the reasons of things. Dogmatic assertion will get nowhere with modern youth. It must have the real truth.

How are we to teach the facts? I wish you would write me your views. I have mine, or think I have. By this I mean that my heart fails me sometimes when I set out boldly to teach what I think youth should know. Yet I am confident youth should know.

What shall we do about it? Answers to Health Queries

O. E. W. Q.—What will remove calluses from the hands permanently?
A.—The use of pumice stone should be helpful. After washing the hands and softening the skin use the pumice stone, rubbing very gently.

C. C. Q.—What will remove brown spots from face and neck?
A.—Moles may be made less noticeable in some instances by the use of the electric needle handled by an expert. It is never wise to tamper with blemishes unless you are certain of their nature.

Tomorrow's
HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble.

SUNDAY, APRIL 1.
Upon the just law of sowing and reaping, action and reaction, astrology is based.—Alan Leo.

Sunday's horoscope holds portents of sinister and unexpected events that may be disquieting and harrowing in force. Calm and cool action under all circumstances is admonished. Those whose birthday it is should equip themselves for a year of the unusual, irregular and furtive. They should school themselves in any sort of visitation. Impulsive and passionate conduct would prove mischievous. A child born on this day may have a tendency to impulse and tumult which would work to its disaster unless it be trained and disciplined in calmness and control in early infancy.

Notable nativity: Edwin Austin Abbey, painter.

MONDAY, APRIL 2.

Monday's astrological forecast is for a day of possible depression and suspicion, especially as it relates to personal matters. In business there may be new deals and contracts or agreements, involving letters and signatures, but these should be attended to with extreme caution.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year of depression and indecision in personal affiliations, but in business new arrangements call for discretion and caution in all writings and agreements. A child born on this day may have a tendency to be morose, sullen and suspicious in its personal contacts and not altogether reliable in business unless given early discipline and training.

Notable Nativity: Mary Miles Minter, movie star.

What Are You Buying?

TODAY there are many real items which enter into the purchasing power of your dollar. One customer buys one of these, another some other and once in a while one buys with all in mind.

The First Customer purchases PRICE, and price only, regardless of QUALITY. Price is the paramount issue and often in so doing (without knowing it) purchases dissatisfaction and regret as well.

The Second Customer may purchase Price, but price with Quality. Quality really being the determining factor of price. This customer is much better off than Customer No. 1, because of the satisfaction of QUALITY with PRICE or more for the money.

The Third Customer is interested in both Quality and Price, plus the additional factor, STYLE, which should be an outstanding one in every purchase. And the customer in so doing adds prestige to herself in so doing.

The Fourth Customer is interested in all three—Price, Quality and Style, but more vitally interested in one additional factor, that of SERVICE in the department where the purchase is made. Service of the item purchased, Service of the store from whom purchased.

"THINK OF THIS"

Hebrews 4:7 "Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

An emerald vase is in Italy, which tradition has it was one of the gifts of the Queen of Sheba to King Solomon. The tradition says that Solomon filled it with an elixir which he alone knew how to distill, and of which a single drop would prolong human life indefinitely.

A miserable criminal, dying in prison of a slow disease, begged the king for a drop. Solomon refused, saying, "Why should I prolong such a useless life?"

When good and great men bequeathed him for it he was in an ill humor or too indolent or busy to open the vase, or he promised and forgot.

The years passed and he could never decide just what period in life he wanted to preserve in himself, so the elixir remained untouched.

Finally he became desperately ill, and commanded the servants to bring the emerald vase that he might save his life. He opened it. The elixir had evaporated; the vase was empty.

There are no words in the world that bring home to us the cost of forgiveness so forcibly as the self-restrained accounts of the Gospels read day by day in Holy Week.

"They make forgiveness credible because they make it great." "Many follow Jesus to the breaking of Bread, but few to the drinking of the Cup of His Passion." Yet it was to this that the Church was summoned by the Collect as originally written, "Grant that we may learn the lessons of His patience; that is, of what He endured for us, and have fellowship in His Resurrection." Christ will appear to us at Easter in the order of our nearness to Him on Good Friday.

A playlet entitled, "First Visit to the Doctor" was a feature of a meeting of Quaker City tent No. 576 Ladies of the Macabees, Friday evening, at the new quarters in the J. C. Penny company building.

This playlet was written by Dr. J. C. Hanchett, medical director in the Macabees temple at Detroit, for the National Tuberculosis association.

The cast includes a doctor, nurse and five patients, and here are the characters: Dr. Hopewell, Mrs. Nora McNamara; Miss Leah Short, nurse, Mrs. Pauline Arnold; patients, Mrs. See Moss; Mrs. Julia Umstead; Mrs. Lucinda Doolittle; Mrs. Minnie Rutter; Mrs. Fannie Flapper; Mrs. Cora Adams; Mrs. Susie Windbag; Mrs. Nellie Horton; Mrs. Jennie Coughdrop; Mrs. Edna Kelly.

After the meeting the women went to the Famous Market for refreshments.

Junior Class Party

The Junior class party, held Friday, at the High school gym, was a success in every way. About 100 students and faculty members were in attendance.

The gym was tastefully decorated in the class colors, red and silver and floral decorations added to the beauty of the ensemble. Lamps placed in appropriate positions, and palms and furniture made of the gym a beautiful place.

"The Robbery," a one-act comedy was presented by the Salesmen and received hearty applause. Following the play, "Hearts," and other games attracted the guests' attention. Prizes were awarded the winners of the games.

From 9:30 until 12, round and square dancing occupied the guests. Old time tunes and an experienced caller furnished much pleasure and entertainment. Delicious refreshments were served during an intermission. Music was furnished by Miss Betty Moss and Paul Howell's Playboys.

Ruth Circle

A most enjoyable social meeting of the Ruth Circle of the First Friends church was held Friday evening at the home of Miss Mary Lewis, Liberty st.

A delicious dinner was served at tables decorated with carnations. After the meal interesting letters were read from missionaries in China, India and South America, to whom the circle had sent Christmas gifts.

Three of the members, Mrs. C. E. Haworth, Miss Mary Herbert and Miss Lewis had birthdays in March and these were celebrated by giving each a gift.

Games provided entertainment and these were arranged by Miss Herbert and Miss Lewis.

Miss Freda Geisberger and Mrs. Arthur Emery, of Alliance, were out-of-town guests. Miss Geisberger is a returned missionary from China.

The next meeting will be on April 27th and Mrs. Harold England will have charge of the program.

HERRON PLEADS NOT GUILTY; TO BE TRIED MAY 10

New Philadelphia, Ohio, March 31.—William D. Herron, 41, accused slayer of his sister-in-law, Miss Viola May, 21, whose body was found in the Tuscarawas river last Monday, entered a plea of not guilty to a first degree murder charge when arraigned before common pleas Judge E. E. Lindsay here today.

Herron's trial will take place about May 10th, his attorneys announced today.

An anonymous letter threatening the lives of his attorneys, Bowers & Bowers, should they defend Herron in the pending trial has been received by them, it was reported today.

According to Herron's alleged confession made after Miss May's disappearance February 7th, of this year, on the night when he took her for an auto ride, he fatally choked the girl and then threw her body into the river.

COX, JR., YALE STUDENT, HELD FOR ACCIDENT

New York, March 31.—Arrested after a chase in which a half dozen patrolmen fired a score of shots, James M. Cox, Jr., 24-year-old Yale student who says he is the son of the former governor of Ohio who ran against the late President Harding in 1920, was arraigned today in Yorkville court and held in $1,000 bail.

He was charged with simple assault and leaving the scene of an accident. An additional charge of driving while intoxicated was made. The chase that ended in young Cox's capture extended from Fifth ave. and 29th st. where his machine had knocked down and slightly injured a passing laborer, to the entrance of the Hotel Biltmore on 44th st. near Vanderbilt ave., where Cox himself was slightly injured when he fell while getting out of the car.

Heflin Suggests Something Strange In Willis' Death

Washington, March 31.—The suggestion that there was something "strange and unnatural" in the sudden death of Senator Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, was advanced here today by Senator Tom Heflin, (D) of Alabama.

A telegram sent Mrs. Willis by the Alabama senator said: "I am shocked and grieved to learn of Frank's strange and sudden death. He was so well and strong."

"Pardon me for suggesting that you have a competent chemist in whom you have confidence, examine the contents of his stomach. 'My heart goes out in tender sympathy for you and family in this hour of your great sorrow. God bless and comfort you all.'"

STOCK TRADING RECORD BROKEN

New York, March 31.—All records for trading volume on the New York stock exchange and other exchanges, as well as for the violence of price fluctuations, were broken this week, as stocks soared and crashed in a series of 4,000,000-share markets.

Continuing the smashing forward movement which has been in progress since the first part of April, a few of the high-priced speculative leaders jumped in dazzling fashion in the first session of the week, establishing to the satisfaction of all concerned the first 4,000,000-share day in the history of the exchange.

Prior to that time there had been some dispute as to whether that goal had been reached.

General Motors soared to within a point of $200 a share, and sharp gains were registered in Radio, International Nickel and other speculative favorites.

SALEM OFFICIALS WILL SPEAK AT SHREVE APRIL 13

A town meeting has been called in Shreve for Friday night, April 13, when Salem City officials will address citizens of that town on fire prevention and urge that the town bid for the Robinson pumper truck.

Mayor Phil Hiddleston and Fire Chief Vincent Malloy were in Shreve Friday, spending several hours in conference with business men and officials urging that the town further consider the truck.

The village council there voted recently, four to two, against the purchase of the Salem truck, but many citizens are said to be in favor of its purchase and so the town meeting has been called.

Half a dozen Salem officials will attend the meeting and speak, including Mayor Hiddleston, Chief Malloy, Safety Director Rex Ruggie and City Engineer F. S. Barckhoff.

Walter Johnson In Hospital, Very Ill From Flu Effects

Washington, March 31.—Walter Johnson, the "big train" of the pitching mound for a score of years is "a very sick man."

The doctors claim that a few weeks rest and treatment will bring him around to normal health, but those who saw the big pitcher taken from a train here in a wheeled chair and removed to Emergency hospital, had their doubts today. The "Big Snake" is sick—there is no doubt of that.

The doctors say he is suffering from the after-effects of the flu. The attack which he experienced in Florida this winter, they say, was particularly severe, and the after effects dragged down his general condition to the point where there is real reason for concern.

Fords Are Off For Vacation In Europe

They were booked as Mr. and Mrs. J. Robinson, but the Detroit motor magnate's attempt to remain incognito failed to deceive ship reporters. Ford was recognized as soon as he appeared on the pier.

Surrounded by pier guards and eight detectives, the Fords boarded the ship by a private gangway.

LOANS up to $500

In the spring a young or old man's fancy often turns to a new car. The old bus seems about as flexible and snappy as a tired truck horse when some little up-to-date, well-behaved buggy goes sailing by a mile a minute out over sunny highways and then calms down to a mile an hour in the traffic downtown—and nary a rattle.

With your old car and money from The City Loan you can get the machine you want. Your payments here will be within your liking and you will have the unequalled pleasure of motoring in comfort. It's so easy to enjoy your play when you pay The City Loan way.

Expressions Of Regret From Associates In Congress

Washington, March 31.—The sudden death of Senator Willis brought forth from his associates in congress, deeply shocked at the news, expressions of regret. Political opponents as well as friends paid him tribute.

Vice President Dawes said: "Senator Willis dies in the prime of life and in the fullness of his powers. His death is a loss to country and will be mourned as personally by thousands of friends. He was a sincere and upright man."

Speaker Longworth: "We are great friends, and his death is a great shock."

Fess Deeply Affected
Senator Fess, his colleague from Ohio, deeply affected said: "I am shocked, deeply shocked. He went away perfectly well. He never had any heart trouble and I can't imagine what happened."

Representative Burton (R) of Ohio, responsible for Secretary Hoover's entry into the Ohio campaign against Willis, said: "While we are engaged in the midst of an animated campaign this does not interfere with personal relations which were exceedingly friendly. I cannot express my sorrow at the sudden death of Senator Willis."

Senator Curtis, (R) of Kansas: "He was a very able man and senator. His state and nation will suffer a great loss."

Senator Borah (R) of Idaho: "It is a great shock."

Senator Watson (R) of Indiana: "I sincerely mourn his untimely death. I regarded him as a man of the highest character. Sober and industrious, he always manifested those traits of character which bespeak the true man."

Great Loss To Country
Senator Walsh, (D) of Montana: "I always thought of him as one of the most vigorous men physically in the United States senate. I also thought of him as a very sincere man, a man of ability and high purpose."

Senator Shortridge, (R) of California: "A strong man and an eminent citizen has been called away so suddenly and tragically that I can hardly express my grief. It means a great loss to the country in which he held a high position in the councils of state and nation."

MINERS
ers refused to deal with the union without a wage cut and will close, but Lewis declared individual companies are signing up. Lie charged southern fields were selling coal far below cost in an effort to force a cessation of work in unionized territory.

Neither group has shown a willingness to compromise. A majority of operators have told the senate coal committee they cannot exist without a reduction of the Jacksonville wage.

The solution? Both sides agree there are too many mines and too many miners; that overproduction is at the bottom of the evil days. Remedies without end have been proposed in the mass of testimony collected by the committee. The union believes a coal commission, with authority to regulate prices and so forth, will help.

The operators are hopelessly divided. The largest among them think the situation will cure itself through a survival of the fittest, or forcing the weaker companies to the wall, thus permitting consolidations and economies. Others desire the stimulus of federal legislation.

FIGHT NOT LOST

sonally directing the fight, most politicians were ready to concede the secretary of commerce a part of the Ohio delegation. The Willis lieutenants themselves privately admitted that Hoover could not be kept from getting ten or a dozen delegates from the populous cities where Willis was unpopular because of his radical prohibition views.

In all the tables which the Hoover manages have privately compiled to show that he will have in excess of 400 votes on the first ballot, they have figured on about 15 Ohio delegates. In their more optimistic moments they have claimed a majority of the 51, but the practical politicians of Washington have doubted this.

One table of Hoover's delegate strength, privately compiled and circulated in Washington, claims for him 438 delegates, with only twelve from Ohio included. If this number from Ohio is now increased to 40 or more, it brings the cabinet within sight of the nomination, which requires only 545.

The next three weeks probably will tell the story. At least so far as Ohio is concerned.

GAINS MAINTAINED
New York, March 31.—Radio corporation today sold at 194, down 2 points for 20,000 shares. Immediately following this was a sale at 94 1/2 for 7,000 shares.

Prices generally maintained their gains. General Motors jumped 2 points to 194; General Electric sold at 2 1/2; at 10 1/2 for 4,000 shares; Westinghouse up 1/2 at 109 1/2; U. S. Steel up 1/2 at 149; Hudson Motors up 1/2 at 95; U. S. Rubber up 1/2 at 58 1/2.

Standard Oil of New Jersey led the elms and sold at 41 for 12,000 shares. Pan American and Marland sold fractionally higher.

The leading industrial stocks were turned over in enormous volume at the beginning of trading today. The run to buy General Electric, Westinghouse, General Motors and Radio fairly sweeping the floor broke and traders off their feet. Radio last about a point at the beginning, but General Electric and Westinghouse jumped 3 points each in heavy trading and General Motors moved up two points to 194, standing for a brief period on the same price level as its nearest market rival.

Nothing approaching the spectacular activities in the stock market was promised in the week end business reviews of the leading mercantile agencies and banking houses. Commercial gains have been less vigorous and widespread than had been anticipated, according to R. G. Dun's which also commented on the backwardness of market demands, influenced by unemployment and variable weather. Steady movement of American funds, were generally accepted as unmistakable signs of an approaching tightening of the money market as a whole.

When speculative interest appeared to lag in the high-priced industrial and motor stocks, pool operations were transferred near the end of the first hour to a new group of specialty and public utility stocks. American Steel Foundries was whipped along furiously in this period to above 70 for a 4-point gain. Sinclair Oil and Marland moved up to the highest prices in two years, and Standard Oil of New Jersey was turned over rapidly around 41.

A huge buying wave from the outside points met profit taking sales in large volume on the floor of the stock exchange and for a period at the beginning of the second hour selling pressure predominated and prices were forced downward.

Boasting of the list of active market specialties included a number of stocks which have moved up briskly since the middle of the week. American International, an important stockholder in General Electric, Radio and other American corporations, jumped to 101, crossing 100 for the first time, and completing a gain of 30 points on the move. Rumors that Brunswick Balke Collier company will replace Victor Talking Machine as the colleague of Radio in new activities stimulated broad demand for the former stock.

Under the leadership of Chrysler, the low-priced motor stocks pushed forward vigorously in the first hour, but met increasing profit-taking as the session advanced. Bullish pools put their hardest lashes on the heavy in the early trading, and with the stock tape 24 minutes behind at the end of the first hour, it was practically impossible to keep in "most with any but a small number of the big speculative leaders from the brokerage houses specializing in these stocks.

PRIMARY STATUS IS NOT CHANGED BROWN DECIDES

Candidates' Names Appear on Ballots Despite Death, He Rules

Columbus, March 31.—That the death of U. S. Senator Frank B. Willis has not changed the legal status of the Ohio presidential preference primary, to be held April 24, is the decision announced here today by Secretary of State Clarence P. Brown.

"Inasmuch as all the formalities of Ohio election laws have been observed, affecting the presidential primary, the ballots printed in most of the counties throughout the state, and absent voters' ballots, in many instances, have been cast, it is my opinion that, under Ohio law, the election situation remains, entirely unchanged, and the ballots, in preference and delegate—shall carry the name of Senator Willis, the same as if his death had not occurred," declared Secretary Brown.

"I am also of the opinion that no change is made in the status of these candidates for delegates who have designated Senator Willis as their first choice," Brown said.

"I am, therefore, directing the deputy state supervisors of elections, in the various counties of Ohio, to proceed with the preparation of ballots in compliance with the official forms already certified to them," Brown announced.

"It seems hard to be called upon to rule on practical things at such a time," continued Brown. "Yet, owing to the state and national interest in the political results of the senator's death, it is necessary that a statement be made as to the legal status so far as the presidential election is concerned."

Democrat Chairman Extends Sympathy

Mansfield, March 31.—"All Ohioans, Democrats and Republicans alike, were shocked by the death of Senator Willis," said Henry G. Brunner, chairman of the Democratic state executive committee, here today.

"Regardless of political affiliations, we join in conveying to the bereaved widow and family our deepest sympathy."

Prince Falls Three Times In Two Races

London, March 31.—The Prince of Wales fell three times in two races today at Chaddlesley Corbett, Worcestershire, but escaped injury. After being thrown twice in the first race the prince gave up the contest. In the second race—a steeplechase—he fell at the fourth fence, but remounted and finished the course.

Girl Dies, Result Of Mad Dog Attack

Wheeling, W. Va., March 31.—A war on dogs was opened in Monroe county, Ohio today following the death early this morning of Thelma Resecker, 16-year-old school girl of Laurel Run, O., in a Wheeling hospital from the effects of an attack by a mad dog several weeks ago.

April was selected as "No-Accident Month" by reason of it being one of the peak months for industrial hazards, as indicated by the record of 85 fatal and 18,461 non-fatal accidents during April, 1927. The ultimate success of the drive depends entirely on the extent of co-operation between employers and employees in safety measures in which they have a mutuality of interest.

"NO ACCIDENT" MONTH OPENED

Columbus, March 31.—Tomorrow marks the beginning of "No Accident Month" in the industries of Ohio, a movement sponsored and directed by the Division of Safety and Hygiene of the Industrial Commission of Ohio, with a view of materially reducing the large number of preventable accidents among the workers of the state.

Supt. Thos. P. Kearns of the Division of Safety and Hygiene announces the receipt of a veritable flood of assurances from manufacturers and trades organizations all over the state, pledging unqualified endorsement of the movement, the most comprehensive and systematic ever attempted in Ohio. Especially vigorous support of the safety program comes in official statements from L. B. Webster, secretary of the Ohio Manufacturers association and Thos. J. Donnelly, secretary of the Ohio State Federation of Labor.

"With both employers and employees all over the state working wholeheartedly and in unison for the success of this great conservation program," said Supt. Kearns. "The division feels that the net results of the movement will be reflected in a material reduction of accidents in Ohio far in excess of our expectations, when the plan was originated. Through intensive organization and a wide dissemination of literature and posters, coupled with the splendid support accorded by the press of Ohio, the safety message should reach every employee in the state and if it is heeded a no-accident month in our industries should become a realization."

April was selected as "No-Accident Month" by reason of it being one of the peak months for industrial hazards, as indicated by the record of 85 fatal and 18,461 non-fatal accidents during April, 1927. The ultimate success of the drive depends entirely on the extent of co-operation between employers and employees in safety measures in which they have a mutuality of interest.

MOVIES

ROSE-MARIE IS COMING TO THE STATE AS FILM

"Rose-Marie," that popular musical comedy, which will appear in a movie version at the State the first three days of next week as one of several good new features booked for that house and the Grand.

The Grand will observe its third Discovery Night on Friday, and at least six amateur acts will be scheduled. Manager C. V. Rakestraw is well pleased with the interest taken in these amateur nights, and he believes that they will be a means of developing considerable talent in Salem.

Joan Crawford, James Murray and H. B. Peters head a capable cast in "Rose-Marie." This romance of the north woods was filmed in wild western territory, giving it an excellent setting. The story tells of a girl, wooed by a northwestern Royal Mounted sergeant, who turns him down for a youth who comes in from the traps, even though this lad is supposed to be an outlaw. It makes for a tense plot, and the cast supporting the stars is a large and capable one.

Milton Sills has one of his mightiest roles in Peter B. Kyne's "The Valley of the Giants," which will be on display at the State the last three days. Assisted by Doris Kenyon in the leading feminine role, Sills gives a stirring characterization of the son of a lumber magnate. Action, which fills Kyne's books, is provided in ample portions in this film.

How a shapely little hosiery sales-lady outdistances her male adversary forms the interesting story of "Silk Legs," which the Grand will exhibit Monday and Tuesday. Folks, who like this type of farce will get an eye-treat of big proportions as silk legs fill up many a long and beautiful scene. Madge Bellamy and James Hall have the principal parts. Dolores De Rio, the Mexican siren, has a role which she fills very well in "The Gateway of the Moon," coming Wednesday and Thursday to the Grand. She plays the part of a half-caste Indian girl in love with an engineer who is building a railroad in a South American country. It is drama and romance combined, and the producer aimed to use the primitive passion theme throughout.

No pictures has yet been booked for Friday and Saturday for the Grand.

The complete program for the week is as follows:

STATE
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday—"Rose-Marie," Joan Crawford, comedy. "Soup to Nuts," Pathe News.
Thursday, Friday and Saturday—"The Valley of the Giants," Milton Sills; Our Gang comedy, "Edison, Marconi & Co.," Pathe News, Fables.

GRAND
Monday and Tuesday—"Silk Legs," Madge Bellamy, comedy. "She Tramps to Conquer," Monday only—Kelley's "Country Store." Wednesday and Thursday—"The Gateway of the Moon," Dolores De Rio, comedy. "How High is Up?" No. 7 of "The House without a Key."

Friday and Saturday—Picture to be booked.
Friday Night—Discovery Night. Amateur acts to be entered in contest.

TONIGHT
GRAND—"The Wizard," a thriller starring Edmund Lowe. This film shows how a mad scientist attempts to terrorize his enemies by means of an ape which he sets loose in a haunted house. The story was written by Gaston Leroux, writer of the Rue Morgue tales. A young reporter saves the day and rescues a girl from the clutches of the mad man. Comedy is interjected by two negro servants.

STATE—Jack Mulhall and Charles Murray share honors in "The Poor Nut," the comedy at this house. Mulhall plays the part of a track star who is shy in the presence of ladies but a bear in athletics.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, March 31.—The hat is synonymous with cap these days, and judging from the latest ones which are more close-fitting than ever, the modistes seem to be fervent advocates of the short-hair fashion.

They frame the wearer's face so well and have so little to break their regularity that they appear to be a part of the hair itself. One of them recently seen at the Autent races has a patent zip fastener down the front to allow the fair wearer to remove it. Another follows the line of the hair and is cut up at the left side where the parting of the hair might be, and swept down over the right eyebrow. The "mise en plis" effect which is so popular now, is completed by narrow, wavy lines of silk in the crown.

Mistiguett is wearing a skullcap effect made of strips of pleated and grain and satin ribbon, banding the head from ear to ear. A large white camelia trims it on the left side and a little lace veil shadows the eyes.

Another skull-cap has two bands of the grosgrain circling the head and meeting the satin ribbon passing over it. Three small camelias are placed at the left side.

A "double-decker" hat which is being launched by some of the exclusive houses is hardly likely to be generally worn. For it is more difficult to wear than the most sensational helmet, and although more dashing is certainly not as pretty. ## COL. WM. MORGAN AGED 61. IS DEAD

Head of Engineering Co.
In Alliance Dies In Baltimore Hospital

Alliance, March 31.—Col. William H. Morgan, aged 61, head of the Morgan Engineering Co., of Alliance died at Union Memorial hospital, Baltimore, late Thursday night.

Col. Morgan, one of the industrial leaders of Ohio, was for 30 years head of the company which has manufactured some of the world's largest machinery. He designed the first electric traveling crane and other machines used in foundry work.

Last year the Morgan Engineering Co. was reorganized following settlement of a $1,028,525 suit against its officers. The creditors put in their own men but Col. Morgan remained as president of the board.

William Henry Morgan was born at Pittsford, Pa., June 1, 1866, the son of Thomas R. Morgan, Jr., founder of the Morgan Engineering Co. At the death of his father in 1897, Col. Morgan became president of the company.

Morgan was educated in the Alliance High school and Mt. Union college.

His home, Glenmorgan on Union ave., Alliance, is one of the show places of Ohio. Fashioned after a Welsh castle, with spacious grounds, the estate is famous throughout the Middle West.

Col. Morgan held his title from the staff of Gov. George K. Nash, who recognized the faithful Republicanism not only of Morgan but of his father, the friend of McKinley, Mark Hanna, Andrew Carnegie and John Sherman.

Col. Morgan was a delegate to the Republican convention which nominated McKinley and Roosevelt. His widow, the former Mrs. Anna Maria Shaver and son, W. H. Jr., survive, with three brothers, John R., of Gary, Ind.; Arthur, of Kent, and Maj. Edwin Morgan of Alliance.

"In the present campaign some difference of opinion has existed as to the merits of the present presidential candidates, but I believe that I voice the sentiment of each member of the organization when I say that a great organizer and leader has been taken; that we deeply regret his passing and that we extend our heart felt sympathy to his family and friends."
